5 A. THE FIRST SATURDAY IN APRIL, IN EACH YEAR, SHALL BE OBSERVED AS

7 B. PUBLIC LANDS DAY IS NOT A LEGAL HOLIDAY.

8 Sec. 2. Legislative findings

9 The legislature finds that:

10 1. Arizona contains a variety of public lands, including parks,
11 monuments, preserves, national forests, rangelands, wildlife refuges and 12 wilderness areas.

13 2. Arizona's public lands are open and accessible to all persons,
14 no matter their place of residence, their race or their ethnicity or 15 whether they are rich or poor.

16 3. Arizona's public lands enrich the state's quality of life by 17 supporting the vitality of communities and providing traditional cultural 18 land-use values that represent Arizona's common heritage.

19 4. Arizona's public lands include snow-capped peaks, mile-deep
20 canyons, rushing rivers, grassy plains, desert landscapes and tree-lined
21 mountain valleys.

22 5. Arizona's public lands provide many benefits to residents and 23 visitors and support a wide variety of activities, from recreational 24 pursuits to natural resource development and uses.

25 6. Arizona's public lands have a substantial impact on economic
26 development and jobs through hunting, fishing, mineral extraction, timber
27 sales, ranching, tourism and outdoor recreational activities.

28 7. Arizona's public lands contribute to the state's clean air and 29 water and are a vital repository of precious and limited water sources.

30 8. The resources of these public lands, including water, minerals,
31 grass for livestock, timber and the native fish and wildlife belong to all
32 Americans and the sovereign nations that reside on these lands.

33 9. Arizona citizens of all races, ethnicities, occupations and 34 lifestyles continue to derive multiple benefits from the traditional,
35 long-standing multiple-use management philosophy of public lands under the 36 stewardship of federal and state land management agencies.

37 10. There is public support for policies incorporating a judicious
38 balance between aesthetic, recreational and economic values.
